

See Exercise 1.

Exercise 1. (Fermat's Last Theorem) Prove that $x^n + y^n = z^n$, where $n \geq 3$, has no non-trivial solutions $x, y, z \in \mathbb{Z}$. Solution

Exercise 2. Do you love Typst? Solution

Exercise 1. The truly marvelous proof of this is unable to be contained within this small document.

Exercise 1 Question

Exercise 2. Yes! Exercise 2 Question

Exercise 1